CONTENT DEVELOPMENT AND CURRICULUM DESIGN

Our flagship capability and service is content development and curriculum design based on an award-winning, proprietary methodology called Critical Mistake Analysis (CMA), pioneered by our Cognitive Arts division. CMA evolved from extensive research conducted at Northwestern University’s Institute for the Learning Sciences and helps the talent development organization and training departments take an empirical approach to deciding exactly what content will have the most significant business impact. We have earned not only our customers’ trust but also industry recognition for the quality, business value and on-ground impact of our content – whether it is reduced costs, improved time to proficiency, greater profitability or increased efficiency.

LEARNING ADMINISTRATION

NIIT has over 25 years of experience in the management and administration of the learning process. Our Learning Administration service is built on best practices and configured to the needs of each of our customers. We deliver rock-solid operations and high service levels under a variable cost model. Our goal is to transform learning administration with clockwork efficiency and enable learning organizations to use the best of their energies in exploring innovations, improving effectiveness, and aligning results to meet the expectations of the business.

With a strong team of over 2,500 trainers across 40 countries, you can count on our 3 decades of experience to transform the way your training is delivered, globally. Our state-of-the-art operating model allows re-factoring roles and encourages cross-skilling to sustain a flexible capacity of trainers. This also ensures high efficiencies through optimum usage of their time across continuous engagements, enabling optimal cost of delivery.

LEARNING TECHNOLOGY

NIIT's premier, on-demand learning management system (LMS) is a full-featured, fully hosted application that can be configured to meet a variety of business needs. The LMS provides the same customization, configuration, and integration capabilities as a more traditional software application, without the need to buy, install or maintain any hardware or software. NIIT’s platform supports over 4.3 million learners for over 2,000 clients worldwide and includes detailed tracking, skills assessment and management, and reporting options. Equipped with integrated wikis and blogs, 24 x 7 user support and the ability to deploy proprietary courses, NIIT’s LMS provides significant operational efficiencies and commercial benefits at lower costs with faster implementation and a 99.86% guaranteed uptime, excluding planned downtime.
